Privacy Policy

The Broome Community Stallholders Association Inc. (BCSA Inc.) collects the following personal information during the stallholder registration and site payment process:

- Full name
- Email address
- Phone number
- Residential or business address

This information is collected solely for the purpose of allocating and managing stall sites at the Broome Markets.

From time to time, we may receive enquiries from market visitors seeking to contact stallholders or learn more about their products. In such cases, BCSA Inc. will only share a stallholder's email address and/or phone number if the stallholder has provided consent. This consent is obtained during the online registration process.

All credit card payments are processed securely through the eWay online payment gateway. BCSA Inc. does not store any credit card information.
